Act No. 10 of the Year 2013

An Act Made to Implement Regional Multipurpose Plans

Whereas, it is necessary to maintain the economic interest of the general public by making arrangements for the expeditious implementation of multipurpose development plans in certain areas, this Act is hereby enacted and promulgated by His Majesty the King on the advice of the Council of Ministers. 1. Short Title and Commencement: (1) This Act may be cited as the "Regional Development Plans (Implementation) Act, 2013."

(2) This Act shall come into force immediately. 2. Notification of Development Area: The Government of Nepal may, by preparing a multipurpose plan for the development of any specified locality, declare such area as a Development Area by a published notification. 3. Powers of the Government of Nepal in relation to the Development Area: After the publication of the notification under Section 2, the Government of Nepal may do the following:

(a) Direct surveys to be conducted by designated officers, and such officers shall have the right to enter any land or premises within the Development Area.

(b) Construct roads, ferries, canals, and carry out other similar works as may be necessary for implementing the development plan. 4. Power of the Government of Nepal to Acquire Land: (1) If, in the opinion of the Government of Nepal, any land or premises, etc., within the Development Area is required for the purpose of implementing a development plan as mentioned in the notification under Section 2, the Government of Nepal may acquire such land or premises.

(2) Such land or premises shall be acquired in accordance with the law for the time being in force relating to land acquisition. Provided that no compensation shall be payable in respect of any land or premises that has been lying fallow for two years prior to the acquisition; and if the Government of Nepal wishes to sell any developed land or premises within the development area, no person other than the person from whom the Government of Nepal acquired land or premises in that area without compensation shall be entitled to purchase such developed land or premises, subject to the rules made under Section 5. 5.
